because most work interruptions deal in cents per hour, rather than annual pay, the proposition Columbiana teachers have put before the School Board has been worked out in cents per hour for easier understanding. Working 184 days per year, or the equivalent of 37 five-day weeks, at 48 hours per week, which is the national as well as the local average, the requested increase of $600 per year figures out at approximately 33 1/3 cents per hour.

Servicing of School Buses Called Faulty

Fred Landsberger, part-time school bus driver, blasted the local Ford and Chevrolet garages for what he termed "improperly servicing" of school buses, when the Board of Education met Monday evening at South Side School.

Landsberger, who drove a parochial school and public school bus at East Palestine for 13 years, claimed the buses were not placed on hoists for lubricating work, which, according to Landsberger, is necessary for proper servicing.

A Four Year Struggle Begins

The class of 1973 first assaulted the hallowed halls of C.H.S. with President Bob Barnes at the fore, all of them full of wide-eyed enthusiasm, as freshmen always are. They served, as freshmen always must, as scapegoats for the upperclassmen, as the butt of many unfunny jokes and as the subject of much doubtful poetry, such as the jingle which begins, "He knows not and knows not that he knows not . . ." They soon learned that they knew not and set about remedying the situation. Thus, the class of 1973 became sophomores and prepared to greet the class of 1974 with all proper disdain.

CLASS OFFICERS—Mark Evans, President; Rhonda Tipton, Secretary; Ron Yokley, Treasurer; Kurt Knisely, Vice-President.

The sophomores, led by Mark Evans, spent a busy year being thankful they weren't freshmen and preparing to be juniors. The class of '72 had lost none of its first year enthusiasm and demonstrated its spirit at every possible opportunity. They proved to be a serious contender for the "Spirit Jug" and put less vocal classes to shame by standing up and shrieking every time anything vaguely sophomores was mentioned. Sophomores made themselves heard in many places besides pep rallies; they gave the fans a lot to cheer about at football and basketball games and carried off most of the trophies and medals at the Science Fair. They were justifiably proud of themselves and their class and looked forward eagerly to the next two years.

Being a mighty junior gave students much pride and responsibility. The Junior-Senior prom and the Junior-Senior luncheon served as an incentive. As a result, the junior class worked eagerly at the concession stands at football and basketball games; and on the junior class play "Stranger In The Night".

Led by their president, Bill Lodge, the junior class fulfilled another responsibility by aiding in the long, hard, and victorious fight to pass the much needed school levy.

One of the highlights of the year was receiving their class rings. A new style, the "Lunar 70" was finally chosen after voting several times.

Although Juniors stood with respect at assemblies when the Seniors entered, they looked forward to their senior year when the honor would be bestowed upon them.

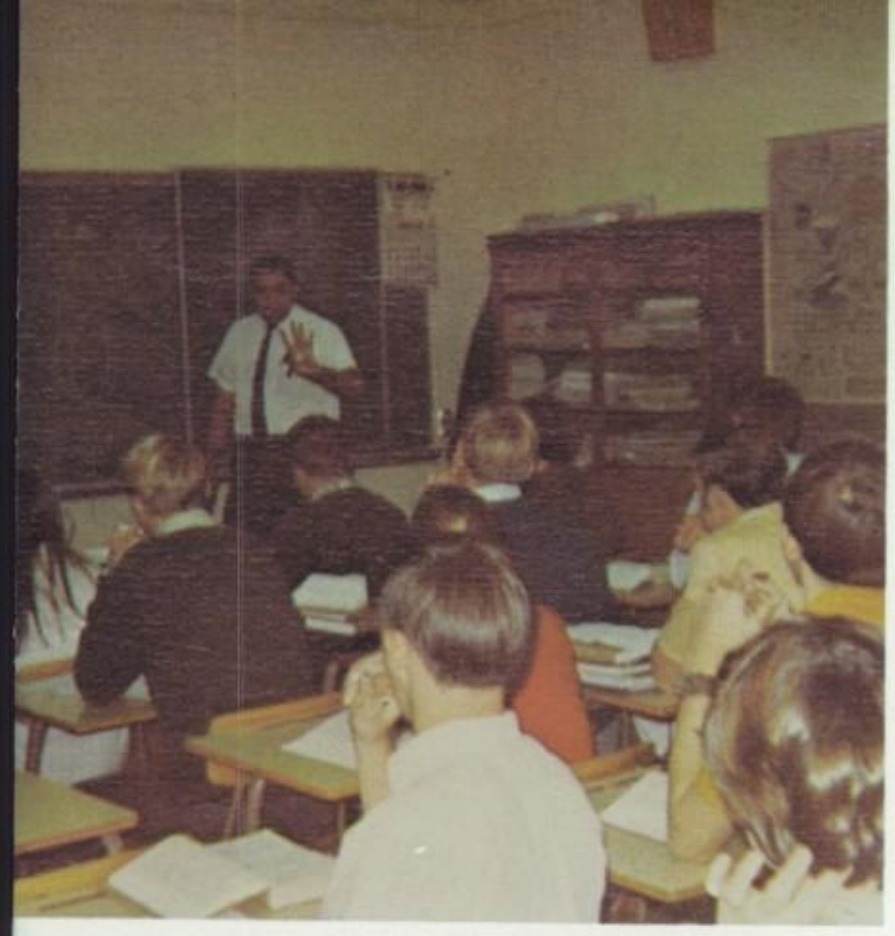
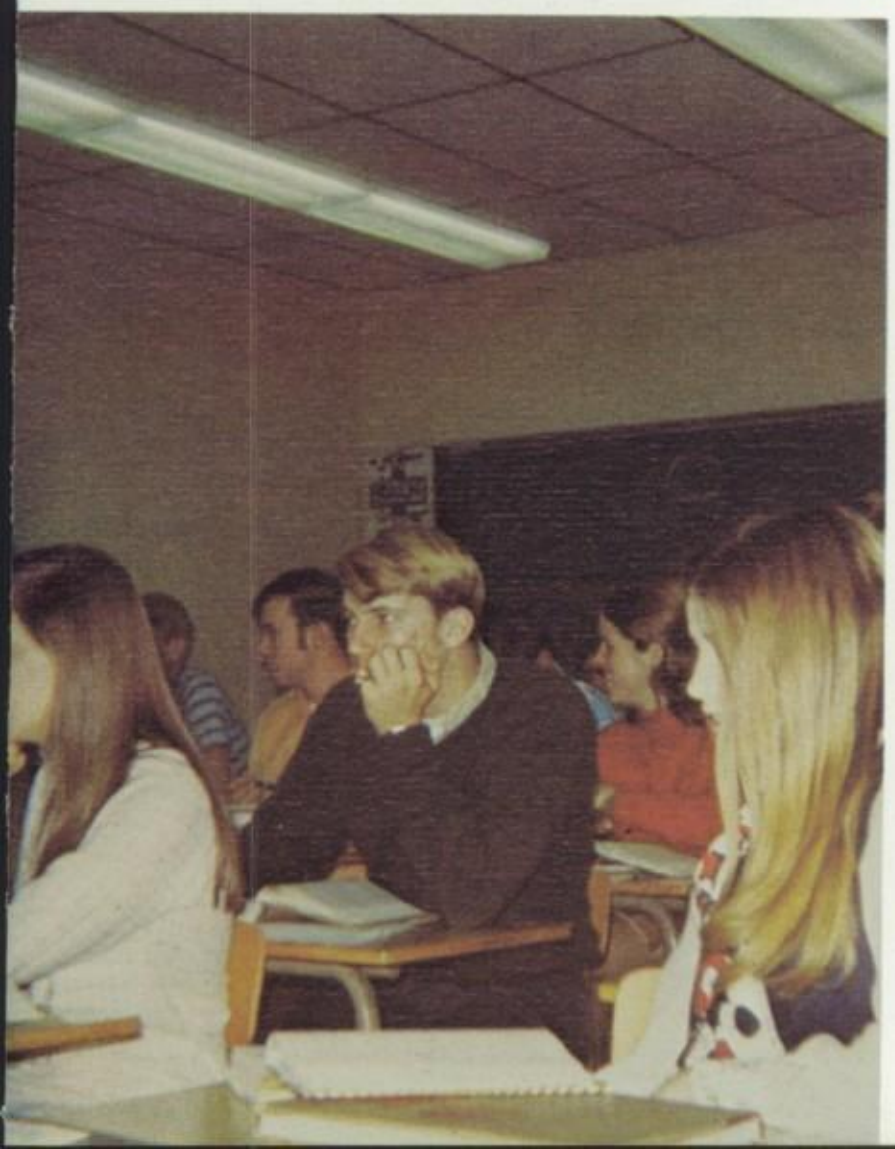
VOTE ON DEC. 9th PASS the LEVY
DO YOU WANT YOUR CHILDREN TO RECEIVE A SECOND RATE Education?





The seniors of 1970 embarked on the multitudinous adventures of their final year at C.H.S. with highly efficient President Kenneth George Kirk at the helm. They selected the motto, "To live and let live is not enough; To live and help live is not too much," and became one of the most actively involved senior classes in Columbiana's history.

Seniors initiated the campaign for the school levy, as well as a door-to-door plea for the issue which was to lower the voting age.

They began work on a student handbook and set new precedents for assemblies at Columbiana by introducing a variety of controversial speakers.

There were lighter activities, too—a senior class party on Halloween in Burbicks' barn proved a stroke of genius and resulted in plans for a sledding and skating party and Valentine's Day celebration, as well as an all-day class picnic. And few who participated will not forget the icy thrills of a mass snowball fight at the park.

They didn't feel like seniors and sometimes didn't even act the part, but the approach of Commencement brought home that rather frightening state of affairs. All too soon, it was all over and the seniors, now graduates began to apply their enthusiasm and originality to the life outside the walls of C.H.S.

Parade Coming or Arrival of St. Nick

The biggest welcome to Santa Claus in recent years is being cooked up at the moment by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce headed by Dr. Ralph Urmson.

The committee is busy putting together a regular parade, with bands, floats, banners, and the whole bit.

Date for Santa's debut is Saturday, Dec. 6, at 10 a.m. Whether he'll come by sleigh, buggy, or other conveyance will be determined by the weather.

Formation point of the procession will be W. Salem St. The itinerary proceeds down N. Main St., through the Square, past a reviewing stand in front of the Plaza parking lot, and disband at the High School.

Santa's headquarters, after his official welcome, will be in the room across from the Plaza parking lot formerly used by the National Union Bank as the location of its Walk-Up Window. He'll have candy treats for the children and listen to their Christmas

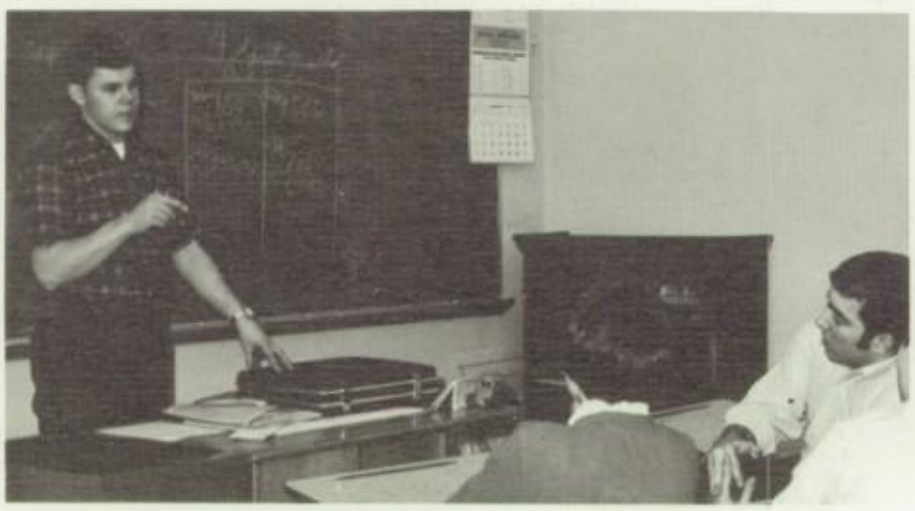
Student Council Makes Revisions

This year's Student Council unduly blessed with the leadership of Bill Newell, was the core of accomplishment. Its fall duties consisted largely of distributing student booklets, supervising the homecoming elections, and tending the football and basketball homecoming, organizing the pigskin prom, and helping in the school levy campaign. The spring session found the Student Council trapped by revisions of cheerleading elections, revisions in homecoming elections, and a new impeachment practice. As all elections were completed, the seniors graciously stepped down and left the newly elected council high and dry.



President, Bill Newell, leads discussion at a meeting.

The six senior members of the National Honor Society who had been inducted as juniors, Ken Beck, Mary Bookwalter, Tom Carrol, Rita Crawford, Fred Esenwein and Lisa Haines conducted a mock trial during this year's induction service. A jury of teachers heard four witnesses—Scholarship, Leadership, Character and Service—speak in behalf of the candidates and found all the defendants "guilty" of possessing all four qualities. Twelve seniors and six juniors were welcomed into the society after a suspense-filled tapping ceremony.

The organization visited several other schools throughout the year as guests of National Honor Societies, conducted a highly successful magazine sale in order to provide money for two scholarships presented to seniors on Awards Day, campaigned against pollution, and, in cooperation with the F.T.A., made tutoring services available. They also started work on a scrapbook of C.H.S. students' activities and distinctions, to be continued in future years. In these services and many others, the National Honor Society worked to make its lofty ideals live.

To the Reader—

We, the 1970 "Clipper" staff, hope that you enjoy your yearbook. We have tried to capture the excitement of your high school year in words and pictures.

In the interest of the students, it was decided that the yearbook be strictly a high school annual. Thus, we were able to compile an index of all high school students.

With the hard work and cooperation of the senior class, Abey Studio, and Mr. Bert Coburn, the project has been completed. We should like to thank all who played a part in making this yearbook a success.

Sincerely yours,

Ken

Hair now . . . Gone tomorrow.

An innovation during the last year was the Dress Code Committee. Composed of elected students and two teacher advisors, Mr. Hutton and Miss Schrom, the committee was formed to maintain, through its own suggestions and those of Mr. Gloss, the high standards of dress for school and indoor school functions of which Columbiana is so proud. Disciplinary actions were seldom necessary since the majority of the student body used moderation and a little common sense, which was all that was required to meet the suggested standards.

This year in a desperate, frantic, but successful way the school paper was brought from its previous state of uselessness.

The name change from the Beacon to The Paper was to signify this difference.

Song dedications, "Were You There When's," gossip, and other wishy-washy articles were eliminated. What came forth was more news, controversial articles, satire and literary articles, and a completely different type of humor.

All in all, it was somewhat intellectual, occasionally immature or unprofessional, but always unique.

Delegates Learn of State Government

Chosen to represent Columbiana this year at Buckeye Boys' State were Rick Hum and Bill Lodge, with Mark Crook named as alternate. Delegates to Girls' State were Mary Jo Hinerman and Leda Knisely; selected as alternates were Terry Stamp and Pat Symons. Representatives to Boys' and Girls' State were sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary and are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership ability, interest in government, personality and ability to compete with others of like standing. The boys went to Ohio University in Athens for a week in June, the girls to Capital University in Columbus. They set up an entire government—campaigned for office, conducted elections and performed governmental functions. They also had the opportunity to hear a variety of distinguished speakers, met hundreds of students with common interests and participated in innumerable activities, both educational and recreational. It was a truly unforgettable experience.

The 1969-1970 Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y was a very active club. The club was involved in helping the community by washing school windows after Halloween and cleaning litter off the streets of Columbiana. It also assisted a family for Christmas and sent packages to servicemen in Viet-Nam.

Under Mr. Rea's supervision, swimming parties were organized for the club's members. The club also participated in flag football and basketball games at Crestview.

Both Hi-Y's Busy

The Jr.-Sr. Hi-Y had a very successful year. Under the direction of Steve Hill as president and Mr. Gloss as faculty advisor, they accomplished much. They participated in flag football, bowling and basketball, capturing a first place in all three sports. Young's Yippies also captured the basketball tournament title.

The club was active in many service projects. Painting the merchants windows, scrubbing the billboard on the square, and collecting for the Red Cross were a few of the service projects in which the Jr.-Sr. Hi-Y participated.

G.A.A. Is Initiated at C.H.S.

Along with our new gym teacher, Miss Mastoris, came many new ideas. One was for a Girls' Athletic Association (G.A.A.). This was started in the fall of 1969, and energetic girls, frosh through seniors, joined. They played football, dodgeball, tackle basketball, and many other fun yet rather dangerous games. This was a worthwhile organization and will be good background for future G.A.A.'s.

G.A.A. girls excelled in gymnastics as well as group sports.

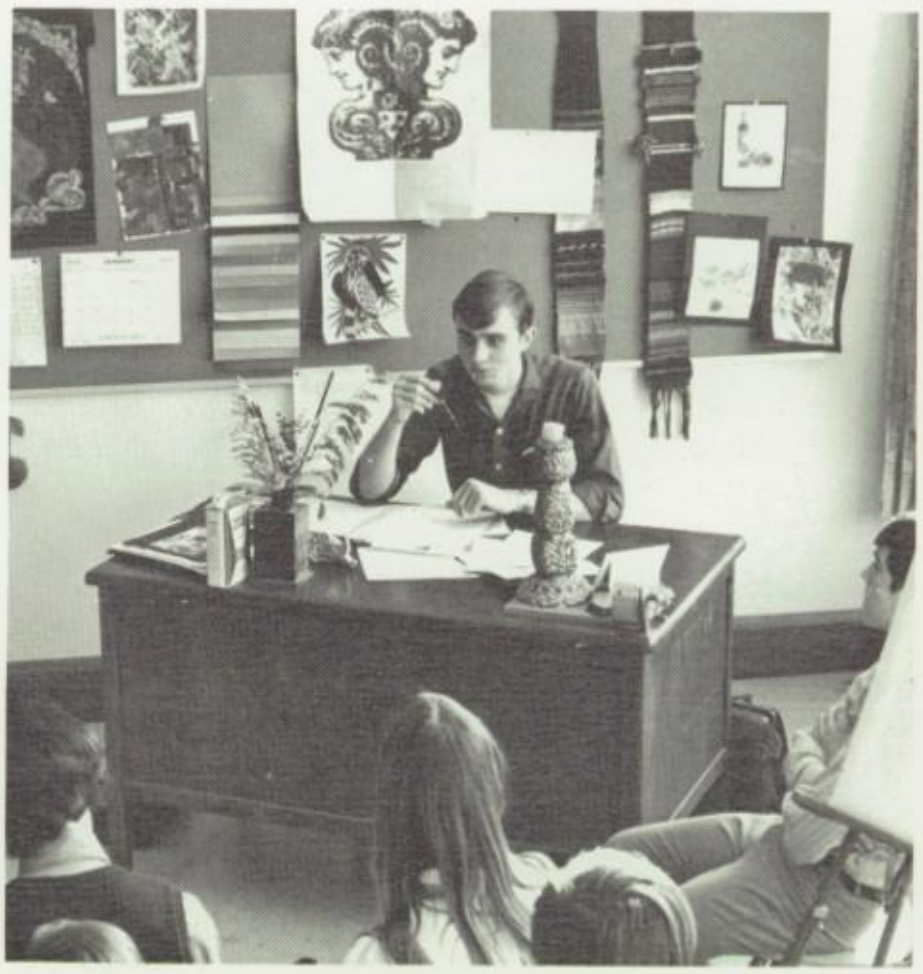
Interested Students Form Art Club

Sparked by interested art students, an Art Club was started this year. The members busied themselves cleaning and rearranging the art room, holding a bake sale, and visiting the Ohio Annual Sculpture and Ceramic Show at the Butler Art Institute. A constitution was established by the club and officers were elected.



Gary Hall fulfilled his duties as president.

light Year with Science Fair

The Future Scientists of America began this year with an unprecedented membership. In the pursuit of a better knowledge of science and opportunities, the club went on several field trips including Packard Electric in Warren and science forums at Boardman High School. Guest speakers with experience in various fields of science were invited to address the club at home meetings. The year ended with a very successful science fair and an all day field trip.

Future Teachers Try New System

The main project this year was student teaching at Southside and Dixon schools. A new method was initiated which had been devised by Mr. Karlis and Mrs. Elser, the Club advisor. This year the F.T.A. members taught under the supervision of a teacher, whereas other years, they had attempted to handle a classroom by themselves. It was found that the new system worked very well.

The F.T.A. also had Egg Begs and a traveling bake sale. This was to raise money for the two scholarships which are awarded to senior members on Awards Day.

OFFICERS—Becky Beller, treasurer; Stefanie Koch, social chairman; Dana Cope, project chairman; Buzz Shutt, president; Don Drotleff, vice-president; Margie Beck, program chairman; Patty Soltis, treasurer.

With Buzz Shutt as president, the Latin Club had an exciting year. The Club met once a month to plan projects and activities. Members took a field trip to Hiram College where they attended a play, and they judged the freshman Latin projects. The outstanding event of the year was the Latin banquet where the sophomore masters and mistresses thoroughly enjoyed being waited on by their freshman slaves. Thanks to a very capable leader, Mrs. Ferrall, the Club completed a successful year.

The play was directed by Mr. Harold Backer; Paulette Price served as student director. Laura Mamis was in charge of business affairs, and Tom Bell was stage manager. The play was based on The New York Herald Tribune, Inc. comic strip "Penny" by Harry Haenigsen.

The play took place on the patio of the Pringle home. Penny had her own way of looking at the world—and her own means of attaining her own ends. She stirred up a feud between the boys and girls of the school that spread to the adult population of the whole town.

Seniors Thrilled to Roman Holiday

On April 24, 1970, the juniors honored the seniors with their prom, "Arrivederce Roma." The students and faculty enjoyed themselves and anxiously awaited the crowning ceremony. The royalty for the evening was Tom Bell and Mary Bookwalter as king and queen. Dale Reash and Karen Weir were crowned prince and princess. Jeff Ramsey and Jeanne Hughes served as crownbearers for the occasion. At midnight the prom was over but all couples left for the after-prom at Dixon School sponsored by the Mothers' Club. The theme was "Tunnel of Fun." It was a memorable event that will be remembered by all for many years.

Bill presented Mrs. Yarian with a gift for her help.

Couples enjoyed dancing to the music provided.

Freshmen were chosen to act as slaves.

Jeff and Jeanne carried crowns for the ceremony.

Seniors Present Class Day 1970

Class Day, on May 28, brought the seniors together before the underclassmen for the last time. The history of the Class of '70 was read by Rita Crawford and Mary Bookwalter. Darryl Kiehl and Paulette Price, Dick Schmidt and Kathleen White, and Tom Bell and Sas Jones presented a gift to each senior to remember his high school days. Jim Schmidt, Gary Pietras, and Lynne Berryman initiated a group of freshmen by having the girls eat crackers and whistle, and the boys race to finish a bottle of pop. Lisa Haines taught the loser of each event a song, which they sang before the assembly. Seniors entertained the audience with various musical acts. The seniors in the chorus sang "Scarborough Fair", and the senior band members played "Raindrops Are Falling On My Head". Roger Blosser's group played a song on their guitars and sang. Darla Kunkle and Ken Beck sang "Impossible Dream". Joe Chaplow played his guitar and sang, "He's Not Heavy, He's My Brother". A group composed of senior boys played a song. All too soon it was over, and the seniors filed out leaving the halls of C.H.S. to the underclassmen.

Under the direction of Mr. Ellenberger, the A Capella chorus finished a successful year by putting on their annual spring concert.

They began the year by having a winter concert. They sang for chapel assemblies and were invited to sing for the World Day of Prayer Program at the Presbyterian Church. Part of the chorus also attended the County Chorus in Salem and the Solo and Ensemble contest.

After months of practicing, the day of the District VIII contest came. To their great satisfaction, the chorus came back with a "superior" rating. This entitled them to attend the state contest on April 25. After holding car washes, bake sales, and jitney sales, they earned enough money for the long ride to Columbus, where they received a II.

Mr. Ellenberger displayed emotion while directing.

Jim Schmidt and Kathy Harris found Mr. Ellenberger's Christmas present under the tree.

Jennie Orr accompanied the A Capella Choir on the harp and piano this year.

Mixed Choir Gets 'I' at District Contest;

The mixed chorus, composed of freshmen and sophomores, participated in district contest again and was delighted with their rating—their first I. Returning to Columbiana, they embarked on a round of frenzied money-making activities to raise money for chartered buses to Columbus. They sold candy, washed cars, sponsored a bake sale, a jitney sale, and, with the help of the V.F.W., a fish fry. Mixed chorus members also went to district solo and ensemble contest and performed in the Christmas and the spring concerts.

The choral department gave its first concert under the direction of the new conductor, Mr. Ellenberger, in the winter of 1969. The theme, "Frosty," was carried through beautifully in the decorations which included a mammoth Christmas tree and two slightly lumpy snowmen. The concert, featuring the a capella choir, the mixed chorus and the junior high chorus was, as usual, a smashing success.

Jill Orr and Margie Beck accompanied the Mixed Choir this year.

BACK — If it wasn't for a bad shoulder injury sustained in the Poland game MIKE JUGAN could have rushed for more yards than anyone in the area, but he had to settle for 305 yards on only 53 carries. The shifty little senior had runs of 36 and 46 yards from scrimmage in one game.

Touchdown!

Clippers fight to gain yardage.

Because of the numerous injuries to the squad, the "Clippers" had a less successful season than they had hoped for. John Savage capably served as team captain. With Coach George Morris at the helm, C. H. S. defeated the Poland Bulldogs for their most satisfying win. Dale Reash led the team as leading tackler, with 147 tackles to his credit. Our team also broke the previous pass-interception record with 13 interceptions.

Returning next year are eleven fine lettermen.

'Susie' Crowned As Football Queen

Coach Morris presented the autographed football.

As always, the beauty and ritual of football homecoming brought appreciative smiles from the court, rousing greetings from the crowd, and inspiration to the players. This year Queen Susie, escorted by John Maxwell, and Attendants Kim and Rita escorted by Bill Meighen and Greg Sponseller, cheered the Clippers in their combat with the Sebring Trojans.

Bill, John, and Greg escorted the queen and attendants.

BASKETBALL QUEEN
VICKI GUSTAFSON

Clippers Win; Vicki Reigns

Lovely Homecoming queen Vicki Gustafson, escorted by John Savage, and her two attendants, Sas Jones, escorted by Jeff King, and Laurie Magill, escorted by Tom Bell, provided inspiration for the Clippers' 64-56 victory over East Palestine on January 31. It was Columbiana's second win over East Palestine in the 1969-1970 basketball season, and an elated crowd cheered uproariously as the Clipper team carried off the trophy once again.

Bill announced the lineup.

Coach Hughes discussed the strategy.

In spite of lack of experience and adjustments to the new head coach, the basketball team proved quite successful during the '69-'70 season. Dan Reash broke the individual scoring record with 35 points in tournament play against Jackson Milton. Dale Reash, the only returning letterman, was elected captain and led the team to a 10-10 season record.

Varsity Creates Student Enthusiasm

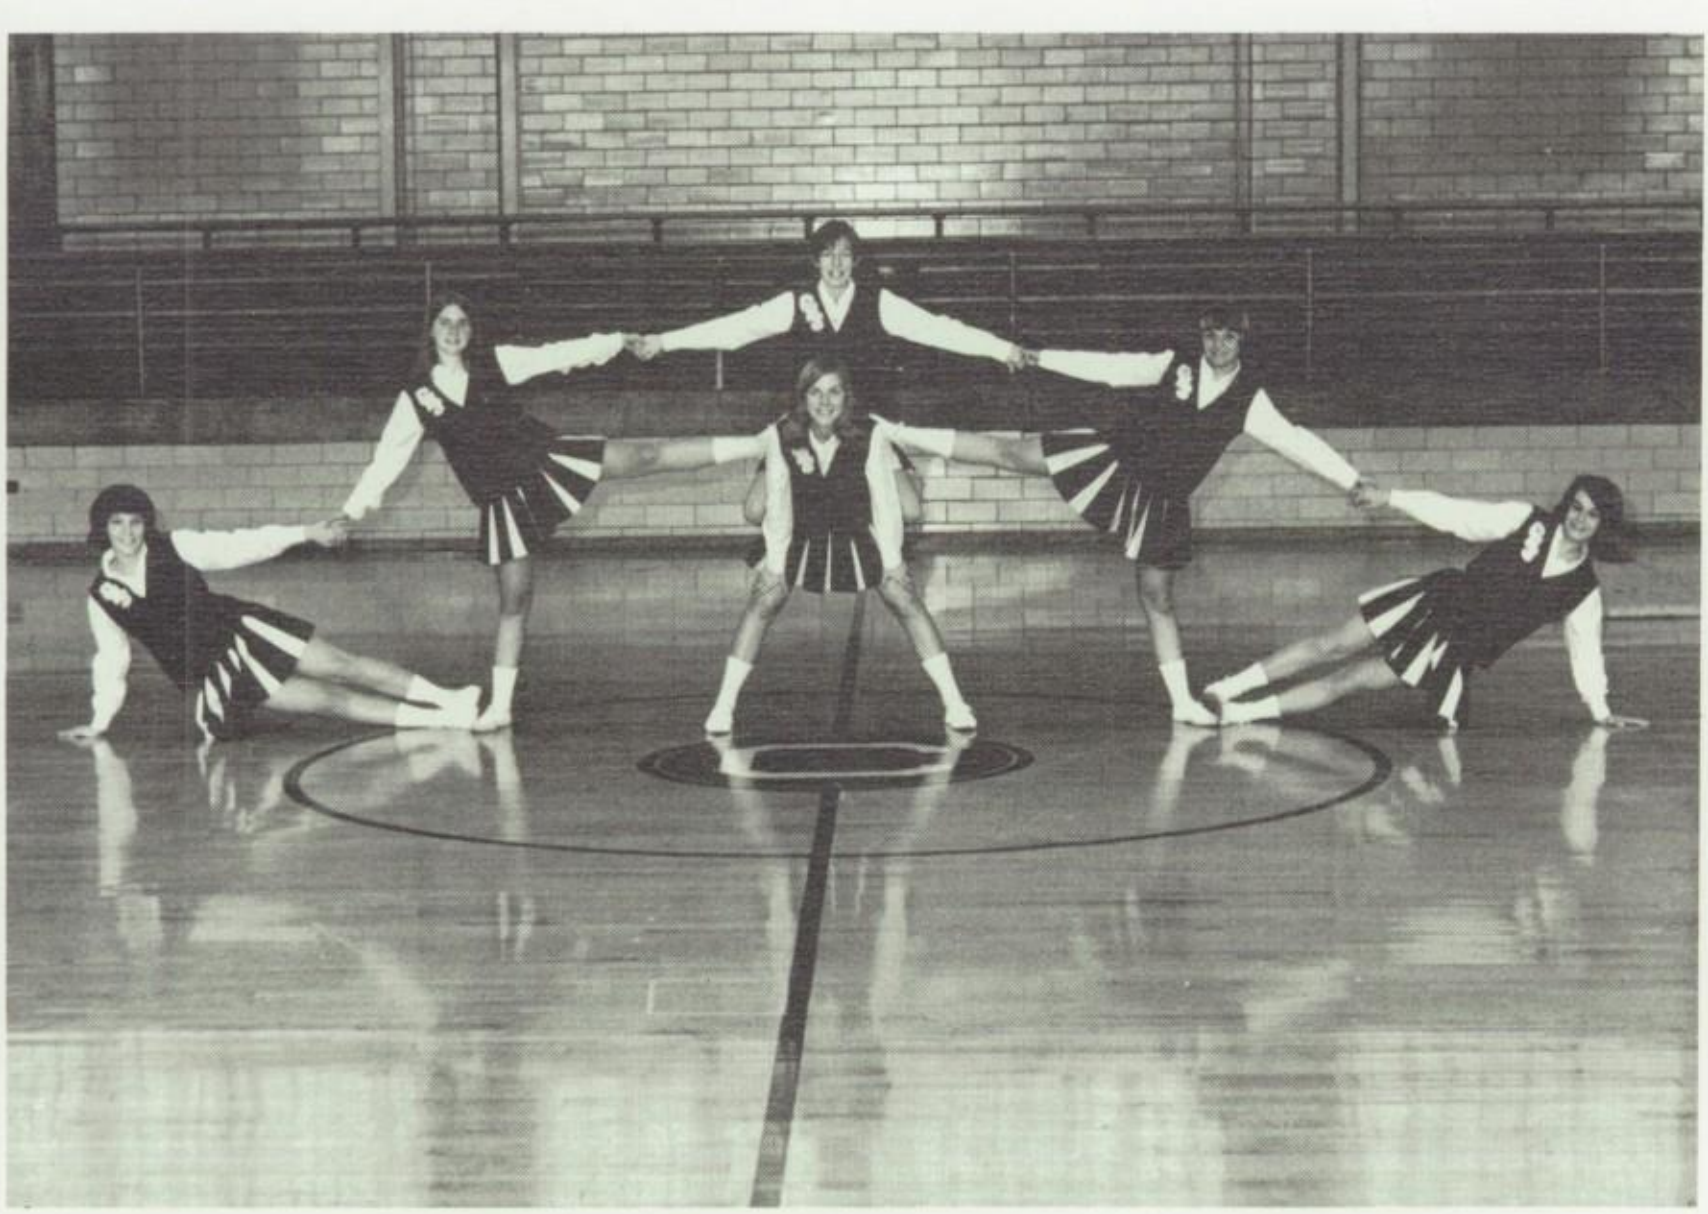
Two bits, four bits . . .

Cheerleaders sparked enthusiasm.

This year the Varsity Cheerleaders attended the Tri-County Cheerleading Clinic at Poland. The purposes and objectives of cheerleading were told and then each squad performed two cheers to show different ideas in cheering.

In addition to cheering the team on to victory, the cheerleaders had money making projects consisting of selling ribbons, pins, buttons and shakers.

As a group project they helped others in constructing the football homecoming float and in making the gym decorations for the basketball homecoming. Later in the year they initiated a new system for cheerleading try-outs.



VARSITY BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS—Lana Warner, Mary Bookwalter, Lynne Berryman, Karen Weir, Marcia Cunningham, Terry Stamp.

Cheerleaders Spark Teams

The Reserve Cheerleaders also attended the Tri-County Clinic at Poland where they learned new cheers. Both the Reserve and Freshman Cheerleaders helped with the float for the football homecoming and the basketball homecoming decorations. They also helped to sell the ribbons, pins, buttons, and shakers in homerooms.

These cheerleaders did a fine job keeping the spirit of the student body high at the school and at games.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS — Barbara Eckert, Kathy Lower, Rhonda Tipton, Carolyn Armstrong.

All-Sports Banquet Honors Athletes

Jim Brutz gave the athletes solid advice.

On April 27, senior athletes and cheerleaders were honored by the Booster Club at the All-Sports Banquet. The guest speaker, Jim Brutz, told the dedicated athletes of the many feats he accomplished while at Notre Dame University. The athletes were then honored separately by the coaches for an outstanding year of sports at Columbiana.

Coach announced senior players.

Many attended the sports banquet.

Track Team Had a Successful Year

The 1970 Clipper track team had a very exciting year. Under the leadership of Captain Mark Young, they succeeded in capturing first in the dual and tri meets of the season. Columbiana was also well represented at the District, Regional and State meets. Many of the team members set new, outstanding times and distances. Sophomore, Doug Ludolph, set a new school record for the two-mile with a time of 10 minutes and 32 seconds.

Mark jumped hurdles with style and ease.

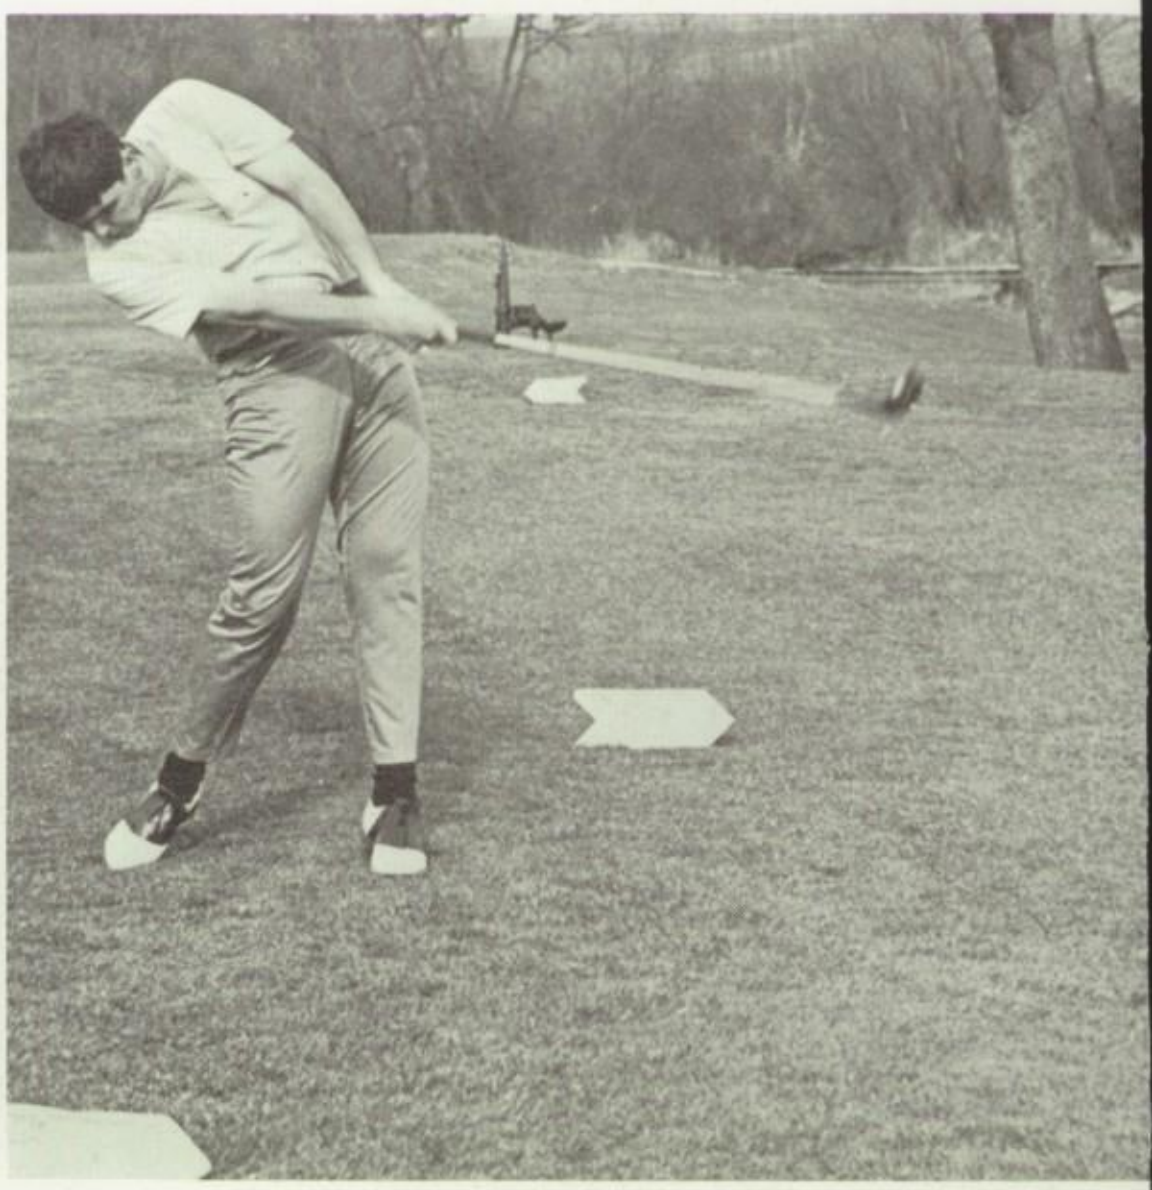
Golfers Reign As Tri-County Champs

Dave and Dale were talented NOT ONLY on the golf course . . .



Ted tees off.

Mr. Rich Berryman—Clipper Track Coach.

The Clipper golf team had a very successful season under Coach Berryman with a 15-2 record including 9 shutouts, a new school record. Ted Ossoff led the team with an average of 37. Inconsistent Dale Reash averaged 38. Dan Reash and Dave Theiss completed the starting four with averages of 40. These four golfers set a new school record for low team total with 147. Dale was low with an even par 35. Ted and Dan fired 37s, while Dave shot a 38. Steve Hunt, the fifth man, also saw action and averaged 43. Dale and Ted both shot sizzling 75s to share medalist honors as the Clippers won the Tri-County championship at Minerva. The Clippers finished a frustrating twelfth in the district meet. Dale and Dave were the only seniors, so the golf team should be strong again next year.
